My dear Francis, Replied Dec 15/74 Meherazad 7th Oct. 1974

How very thoughtful of you to have remembered me! I thank you very lovingly for the gift copy of "In Dust I Sing". Yes, indeed, it is the best birthday gift for me!

With the publication of "In Dust I Sing" and as this singing begins to be heard by the Beloved & the Lover many a heart-window will be flung open to fill this world <sup>with</sup> the Melodies of the Silence of the Eternal Beloved. Dear Francis, the world will lovingly appreciate your gift of these Gharzals in the near future and many a worldly-minded will be affected by this strong wine of love and get intoxicated. This will please our Lord!

We hear that you keep yourself engaged in writing work and that your health is not as Beloved Baba would want it to be. Please do come to Meherazad for some days if not for some months.

to relax — just to be away from your desk
and to be close to your family.

Pendu - Aloka - Bhau - Bal Natu - Mani - Gher - Ramo - Naja join me in sending you love, much love — though Ramo is in Bombay for a few days and Bal Natu in Kurla Road I know they would not forgive me if I were to exclude them here. Very, very often we remember you very fondly.
Your songs are very often sung at Incherwad - Incherwad by the Bala - babies coming here from abroad. It is our hearts' delight to hear the songs and the music dedicated to the Lord of Love by His Children!

We had very good rain this year, and may be Pendu and Bhau and Adi and Paderi, who are in-charge of the Amar-Tithi, will work out a three-day programme for the Anniversary on 31st January 1975.
So it is time you start thinking about your visit to Incherwad. "Phou - khadhu" says that it is time for the family reunion while she is still under the intensive care of The Black-Smith, and bellows still functioning.

Yours lovingly,
Eruch
