Dear Francis,

— This is to acknowledge the
'intimation' about giving anecdotes
from life with The Avatar.

Frankly, I'm at a loss WHAT to how to write, for, you ~~at~~ know I am a man of nuts, bolts, grease & oil.

I can only put something on in black & white after the smell of grease &
oil is eliminated from my nostrils or circulatory system.

However, I'll try.

With regards to all.
