My dear John,

Thank you for your letter advising despatch of the copies of "Values" to me, and which have been received.

I personally think that you could not have hit upon a better title that "Values" as Guru is implicit in the word - which you are amply showing by its contents - and at the same time avoids the typical Western reaction to a word like "Guru".

So long as principle is not compromised it is always better, I think, to use a word which has powerful associations for the intended reader than a direct word which his conditioning has given a narrow meaning.

I should be glad if you will send one copy of January 1961 issue direct to each of the following names.

- 1) Minoo Kharas
No.1 Lilly Road, Frearhall P.O., Karachi, Pakistan.
- 2) Sri Chinta Sarvarao
