Meher Baba Australia

December 2014 - February 2015

One in love casts the glances of life to the full. The bluish heights of experience and the hazy depths of heavenly delight are the nearly steps towards the one essence.
Love surrenders to the will of the beloved, gives all to the beloved, sacrifices all for the beloved, lives for the beloved, dies for the beloved. This supreme state of love is the God-man, for when is God but love - infinite, unconditional, eternal love?
Love annihilates the lower self and experiences the higher self. So, dear soul, long for your divine beloved till you become one with your beloved.
